Democratic Executive Committee.
The members of the Democratic Executive Committee of Mason county are requested to meet at my office, in Maysville, on Monday, November 26, 1883. A full attendance is required as business of importance will come before the meeting. GARRETT S. WALL, Ch'm.

There are twelve applicants for Crum- augh's place.

CONGRESS assembles one week from next Monday.

The Lexington press terms Senator Williams "the genial old rabble rouser."

As an evidence of how people will differ from each other, we mention that Senator Sherman says "he thinks Mahone's manifesto is an honest and manly statement, and that it is time the old war cry was raised."

There is a demand for the establishment of another asylum for the insane in this State. The asylums at Lexington and Anchorage are so crowded that no more patients can be taken at present and in consequence, many incurable lunatics have been sent to the poor houses in the various counties, where no preparation has been made for their proper keeping. Four insane persons were lately sent to the almshouse in Fayette county.

SENATOR MAHONE has prepared an address to the American people in which he gives his version of the whys and wherefores of the recent election in Virginia, coupled with what is intended to be the Senator's future political operations. The Philadelphia Inquirer (Republican) in referring to this address expresses the hope that he "will imitate that other eminent Virginian, George Washington, and make it a farewell address."

There have arrived at New Orleans in the past few weeks two large bodies of immigrants, amounting in all to nearly one thousand persons, or about one-third as many as usually arrive there direct from Europe during an entire year. This is regarded by the New Orleans Times-Democrat as the beginning of the immigration which it predicted some months ago as one of the natural results of the commercial improvement and development of the city. The Times-Democrat predicts that New Orleans is destined "to become the Castle Garden of the southwest, the greater portion of the Mississippi valley and for all Texas and California." Of the new arrivals a considerable number go straight on through to California, via the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The Market Price of Boys.
A case has been decided in Waterbury, Conn., that goes some distance toward establishing at least for that community the legal value of boys. A jury has rendered a verdict of twenty dollars and costs against a Mr. Squires, who shot a boy on the 31st of last October. What effect this legal determination may have upon the market price of boys of course remains to be seen. Following the rules and principles in operation in the stock and produce exchanges of the country, it may be expected to furnish a basis on which neighbors can satisfactorily "settle their differences." Families who indulge in chronic feuds over the back yard fence can offset an equal number of slain boys on either side, and after that the one that has tallied the most boys can square the account by paying for the excess at the rate of twenty dollars apiece. It is to be observed that the primitive inhabitants of Waterbury regard this figure as somewhat too low.

Enlarged and Improved.
Bowling Green Daily Times.
The Maysville BULLETIN is enlarged to a six column paper and is greatly improved in appearance and general make up.

Personal Remarks.
Patti is the only woman in this country who can afford to wear a $5,000 cold. Munkacz, the famous painter, has softening of the brain.

A son of Kosuth is a married man in Illinois. He is said to be doing well.

Gen. Sam. Houston's library, about 500 volumes, has been presented to the town of Huntsville, Texas.

Senator McDonald makes about $20,000 a year and gives liberally but quietly to charities and the church.

Prof. McMaster says there were no pawpaws in New York a hundred years ago. Evidently the old Knickerbockers were no overcoats.

Francis Joseph, of Austria, has a horror of card-playing and will allow the practice in only one of his palaces, his little hunting chateau of Neuberg.

The President of Honduras, when he left San Francisco for New York, had a wife and six children, eight servants and 7,140 pounds of baggage, on which he paid an extra charge of $742.50.

Senator Sharon was ordered out of a San Francisco court the other day because he lost his temper. This is no way to treat a bonanza king. If he gets real mad he will probably start a court of his own.

DENOUNCED MR. MAHONE

Dezendorf Talks With Energy.
Declaring the Recent Bulldozing Stories to be Malicious Lies—Some Very Plain Language.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Star prints an interview with Congressman Dezendorf, leading straight-out Republican of Virginia, on Senator Mahone's address. In this interview Mr. Dezendorf is reported to have said:

"I have read the address, and any statement or insinuation that Virginia is under a reign of terror—that it is, in fact, a walking arsenal—is an infernal lie. I own some property there, as well as a great many others, and protest against its being injured by such falsehoods as Mahone sets forth. I deplore the riot at Danville as much as anybody can. It was unfortunate, but suppose Mahone had got every vote cast at Danville, it would not have made any difference in the result. The election was square and peaceable and fair, and Mahone was square and honestly beaten."

"If there any truth," asked the reporter, "in the report that the straight-outs have been accused that the President did not directly aid Mahone in his canvass?"

"I have not heard of any such assurances," was the response. "I'll say this: The President could not have helped Mahone more directly unless he had taken the stump for him."

THE ASHLAND MURDERERS.

What Their Attorney Has to Say About the Case of the Remaining One.

News-Journal.
Z. T. Smith, Esq., of Lexington, a promising young lawyer of that city, is in Cincinnati for a few days. Mr. Smith was the chief counsel for the Ashland murderers, Ellis, Neal, and Craft. After Ellis was lynched he worked zealously to acquit both, but on the conviction of Craft, he made strenuous exertions to secure a commutation of his sentence. Proctor Knott has just entered upon the Governorship and could not be moved. Said Mr. Smith when approached with the question, "How was it you were unable to secure Governor Knott's interference in Craft's case?"

"Well, I can only reply I tried every possible avenue to approach the Governor, but he was immovable. Nothing would stir him. I got some of his most intimate friends, such as Dick Winter-smith, to intercede in my behalf, but it was no go. Charlie Reed, the famous Saratoga horseman, offered to subscribe $1,000 in Louisville to defend Craft provided the Governor would stay the execution, but he would not hear of it. I had a two hours' session with Gov. Crittenden, of Missouri, and finally he spoke to his honor, but nothing would cause the governor to grant even a respite. Up to the last hour I went to him, saying that the man was innocent, but he replied that Craft had every possible show to establish a refutation of the terrible charge, but had failed, and he must hang. So he did."

"When does Craft's new trial take place?"

"In February."

"Have you any new evidence?"

"Not yet. The testimony will be about the same, unless there are later developments."

"How do the people in and around Ashland feel over the matter now?"

"Why, there is quite a change in their position toward Craft, and a great many who had implicit faith in their guilt believe that Neal was hung an innocent man. I do not know what effect this shall have on the new trial."

GLANCES

Shot into the Liveliest and Brightest of our Exchanges.

Two large wolves were killed in Essex Swamp, Conn., last week.

The are now but two surviving officers of the great sea fight of Trafalgar in 1805.

Harriet Ross is still navigating Lake Erie. She belonged to the victorious fleet of Commodore Perry in 1812, and the only original portion left of her is her keel.

The London Fisheries Exhibition was visited by 2,703,051 persons, and not a single case of disorderly conduct was brought to the knowledge of the commissioners.

A doctor charged with malpractice has committed suicide in England. What renders the matter peculiarly melancholy is that the evidence seems to point to his innocence.

The succession of the Duchess of Montrose to the property of her late husband, Mr. S. Crawford, is disputed by his youngest brother. Mr. S. Crawford had long been in very weak plight, mentally as well as physically.

An old boot is missing from Berryville, the capital of Carroll county, Ark. The county Treasurer, having been summoned to Fort Smith, hid $7,000 of the county's money in an old boot, which he hid in some rags in his garret. On his return the boot was not to be found. The Treasurer is above suspicion.

In the Spanish army there is one captain general for every 11,003 soldiers, one lieutenant general for every 1,013, one major general for every 693, one brigadier for every 271, one colonel for every 195, one lieutenant colonel for every 99, one major for every 42, one captain for every 18, one lieutenant for every 15, and an ensign for every 6.

Increasing dissatisfaction shows itself in London at the supine conduct of the great landlords. It is complained that they do absolutely nothing for the town from which they draw their millions, and the same men, who are liberal and public spirited enough in their country homes, seem to think that their London property has no claim on them. The duke of Westminster is by far the best of them, but his property happens to be that which least of all needs much doing to it.

As to the quarrel between the valley farmers and the mountain miners of California—a quarrel that threatens to stop mining—ex-Senator Stewart, of Nevada, says: "Mining in the aggregate is not and never has been profitable. The lowest estimate of the people engaged in mining in the past thirteen years is 3,000,000, including those actually working in the mines and those supplying material for the mines. The highest estimate of the aggregate product of gold and silver from all mines in the Pacific coast States and Territories does not exceed $2,000,000,000."
